

Roy N. Pottenger, M.D.

Education

Undergraduate

B.A. DePauw University, 1967-71

Graduate

M.S. Indiana University, 1971-73

M.D. Indiana University, 1973-77

Post Graduate Training

Residency University of California Orthopedic Surgery, 1977-78

Loyola University, 1978-81

Licensure

California, 1981-present

DEA, Present

Illinois, 1978

Indiana, 1977

Professional Organizations / Society Memberships

Fellow of American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons

Fellow of American College of Surgeons

Fellow of International College of Surgeons

Diplomate of American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons

American Medical Association

California Orthopedic Association

Sacramento/El Dorado Medical Society

Western Orthopedic Association

Hospital Appointments

Sutter Roseville Medical Center

Greater Sacramento Surgery Center

Mercy San Juan Surgery Center

Mercy San Juan Medical Center

Mercy Folsom Hospital

Research and Publications

- “Orthotics (A.F.O.) in Myelodysplasia” – Depauw University Wither Term Project Department of Orthopaedics, 1971
- “Dysrhythmias Associated with Nicotine Injury Under Hypoxic Atmosphere” – M.D., Ph.D. Research Project, Indiana University School of Medicine, 1971
- “Intervertebral Disc Disease and Scoliosis” – Orthopedics, Vol.4, No.8, August 1981

Teaching Experience

- UCD Assistant Clinical Professor, Department of Orthopedics, 1985
- Course Instructor, Rehabilitation Center of Chicago, Northwestern University, 1980
- Assistant Professor, Human Physiology and Human Anatomy Course, Indiana University and Purdue University, 1972-74

Sports Team Affiliation

American River College – Orthopedic Consultant, 1985